Biographies

Gordon Jump

(Sir Lawrence Wargrave) was born in Dayton and grew up in Centerville. He graduated from Centerville High School, attended Otterbein College before entering the service, and went on to earn his degree from Kansas State University. He has performed in a number of films and television shows, but the one for which he is best known is WKRP in Cincinnati - a situation comedy about a radio station in which he played Arthur Carlson, General Manager. His most recent appearances on television include a two-part segment of Baywatch and Caroline in the City. He performs live theatre whenever his schedule permits and gives a great deal of time to charities for whom he acts as an auctioneer to raise funds. Gordon is currently working as "Ol' Lonely" the Maytag Repairman. When he isn't working he likes to spend his time reading, looking for antiques, cooking, and playing a mean game of Backgammon. Gordon Jump's appearance is made possible in part by the Dr. Charles and Petie Dodrill, part of the Theatre Endowment Fund.

John Stefano

(Producer/Director) has been chairman of the Department of Theatre and Dance at Otterbein College since 1992, when he moved from Illinois State University where he was chair of the theatre department and managing director of the Illinois Shakespeare Festival. Before that, he was director of theatre at Emporia State University in Kansas where he also served as producer of their summer theatre. At Otterbein, he has directed Big River, Top Girls, Baby, Sweet Charity, Robin Hood, Cloud Nine and last summer's Black Coffee. John also serves on the regional board of the American College Theatre Festival and the board of the Ohio Alliance for Arts Education. John will appear in the role of John Adams in this fall's season opener, the musical 1776. He would like to dedicate this production to his late mother who introduced him to the joys of Agatha Christie when he was ten years old.

Madeleine M. Sobota

(Scenic Designer) is delighted to return to Otterbein Summer Theatre to design her second Agatha Christie mystery. Ms. Sobota holds degrees in theatre and design from Northwestern University (MA) and The Ohio State University (MFA) and has studied design with Lester Polakov in New York City. She has taught and designed at a number of colleges and universities, including Kenyon College, Loyola University-Chicago, and SUNY at Buffalo. Locally, she has designed for CATCO, the Columbus Light Opera, Grandparents Living Theatre, and the Columbus Ensemble Theatre. She was honored by USITT-Ohio Valley Section with a Peggy Ezekial Finalist Award for excellence in scenic design for her designs for Three Sisters at Ohio State, where she recently designed sets for Ah, Wilderness!.

Seth Reinick

(Lighting Designer) interned last August as an Electrician with the Goodspeed Opera House working on Paper Moon, the 20th Anniversary of Annie and the new Alan Ayckbourn/Andrew Lloyd-Webber musical, By Jeeves! In January he returned to the VA Beach area and worked as a carpenter for Virginia Stage Company's Terra Nova. Following that occurred a short stint as Assistant Artistic Director for New Dominion Pictures and Technical Director/Production Designer for Dominion Theatre productions of Schoolhouse Rock Live and Godspell.

Katie Robbins

(Costume Designer) is the Resident Costume Designer. Her costumes have been seen in Otterbein's productions of Romeo & Juliet and Much Ado About Nothing. Most recently, Katie designed the costumes for Marcus is Walking, To Kill a Mockingbird and Hamlet at Otterbein and Flyin' West for CATCO.

Marci Hain

(Costume Shop Supervisor) graduated with a BS in Home Economics from OSU in 1977. After many years in commercial business costuming, Marci joined the Otterbein Tech team in 1989. Since then, she has run the Costume Shop full time, and has designed Night Watch, Sherlock's Last Case, A Few Good Men, and Once Upon a Mattress. She also served as Associate Designer on Phantom. Other credits include: Harrigan & Hart (Players Theatre), Salome (Opera/Columbus), Camelot (Maine State Music Theatre), as well as various high school and community theatre shows around the state.

Christopher DePaola

(General Mackenzie) is a recent graduate from Hollywood, Florida. He has appeared as Paul in A Chorus Line and in last summer's Charley's Aunt and in Black Coffee. He just finished his run as Sir Harry in OST's Once Upon a Mattress. Special thanks to Frank who made me audition for Take Five six years ago. And thanks to Amy for all her love and support - good luck next year.

Adam Donmoyer

(William Blore) is a recent graduate of Otterbein College. Adam felt "what better way to celebrate than to stay and work the summer." Next year, he will be a member of Columbus Junior Theatre's Troupe. He eventually plans on moving to New York City but for now is happy right where he is.

Amy Ellenberger

(Emily Brent) is a senior BFA Acting major from Toledo, Ohio. I would like to thank the 1997 OST Troup for making this summer a memorable experience. She is also happy to announce she will be a part of the many homeless in New York come September. She thanks as always Mom, Dad, Kurt, Sarah, Suzanne, Aunt Nancy, Angie and Chris.

Josh Gilliam

(Rogers) is a junior BFA Musical Theatre major from St. Marys, Ohio. Josh has lost his mind and enlisted as a technician for most of the summer. He has been a part of 6 Mainstage productions, including Phantom and Cabaret. Josh is also a member of Opus Zero and Concert Choir.

Trevor List

(Fred Narracott) is a sophomore BA Theatre major from Delaware, Ohio. He is pleased to let the cat out of the bag and let the audience know - he did it. Sorry to ruin the surprise. In March '98, Trevor will be producing Professor Christina Kirk's theatrical piece based on works by William Shakespeare. Trevor would like to thank God, the folks, the sibs, and anyone who has ever listened to Hansen and said "Why!?" Ummm-Bop!

In support of Otterbein Summer Theatre, The Great Harvest Bread Company will be baking a very special Cranapple Theatre Loaf later this summer. Each loaf costs $5, and the entire amount will be donated to OST. Please make your advance purchase in the lobby at intermission, and then pick up your Cranapple Loaf at Great Harvest on August 19. Thanks for your support!
